

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

May 29, 2004

Contact: Kathy Besser

(775) 684-5768

cell (775) 230-3513

TREASURER KROLICKI HONORS LOCAL SAILOR DURING SALUTE TO THE NAVY DINNER

(Norfolk, Va.) –State Treasurer Brian K. Krolicki met with Nevada sailor Chris Schilling during the annual conference of the National Association of State Treasurers (NAST). “Salute to the Navy” was the theme of the evening’s dinner, which was held on Admiral’s Row at the Naval Station Norfolk. During dinner many of the nation’s treasurers met with the senior naval officers commanding the Atlantic Fleet, while also visiting with seamen from their individual states. NAST worked with the Navy League of the United States in coordinating this special event.

Seaman Chris Schilling, 21, is from Reno and is currently serving in the Shore Intermediate Activity (SIMA) section of the base. His parents currently live in Las Vegas. Seaman Schilling’s first question for Treasurer Krolicki was how to enroll his two young children in Nevada’s college savings plans. Seaman Schilling also expressed his desire to return to Nevada after his military service.

“I was deeply honored to meet one of the brave young men from Nevada who are serving our country,” said Treasurer Krolicki. “As we observe Memorial Day this weekend, we must take a moment to remember the sacrifice all members of the Armed Forces make to keep our country safe and free.”

###

A photograph of Treasurer Krolicki and Seaman Schilling can be downloaded on the treasurer’s website at <http://NevadaTreasurer.gov>, under the section “Press Releases.”

Photo Caption: State Treasurer Brian K. Krolicki poses with Chris Schilling during a reception at the National Association of State Treasurer’s annual conference at the Naval Station Norfolk. The evening was dedicated to America’s servicemen in appreciation for their patriotic work on behalf of our country.

About NAST: The National Association of State Treasurers encourages the highest ethical standards, promotes education and the exchange of ideas, builds professional relationships, develops standards of excellence and influences public policy for the benefit of the citizens of the states.